CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
Washington, D. C.

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTION
NO.

SUBJECT: Central Intelligence Agency Situation Room

1. The Central Intelligence Agency Situation Room, 117 Central Building, provides an integrated national intelligence portrayal of selected aspects of the world-wide situation (political, economic, scientific, military, naval, etc.) by means of graphic, cartographic and audio-visual facilities.

2. The Assistant Director, ORE, has primary responsibility for the maintenance and operation of the Situation Room. All offices of CIA provide assistance, furnish such intelligence material as is needed and recommend changes to accomplish the concept of an integrated situation room.

3. The Situation Room has been established for use by the Director, CIA, the National Security Council and personnel of CIA and the IAC agencies authorized access under policies set forth by Inspection and Security, CIA.
